About the Band

Conjure Hand is a Canadian rock band formed in 2022. The band resides in Victoria and Nanaimo, BC. Fronted by Canadian-Caribbean front man Andrew Kovar AKA “Black Caesar”.

the band plays a diverse collection of rock and roll influenced by rock, blues,and soul music of the 1960s and 70s.

Lyrically the band's themes stem from African American and Canadian history, voodoo from the African Diaspora, and lower class struggles.

With harmonizing guitars, powerful lyrics, huge drums, and stand out bass, the band takes its listeners on a journey that could remind one of great acts such as Thin Lizzy, The Allman Brothers, Deep Purple, and BB King.

With an ever expanding stage show, and deep roster of original and cover songs, Conjure Hand looks forward to leaving its next audiences in a trance.
